The Honorable Mike Crapo
Chairman
Committee on Finance
United States Senate
219 Dirksen Senate Office Building
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Leader Thune and Chairman Crapo:

Republicans should not increase costs for working families in order to cut taxes for ultra-millionaires, billionaires, and wealthy corporations.

At President Trump's direction, Congressional Republicans are working to take away health insurance from millions of American families, make it harder for families to put food on the table, and raise energy costs for working Americans to pay for tax giveaways for the rich.

The Senate Democratic Caucus opposes efforts to give the richest Americans a tax break, especially at a time when ordinary Americans are struggling to make ends meet because of this administration's reckless economic actions.

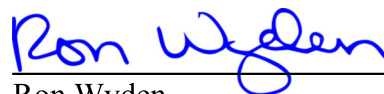

Republicans should abandon their partisan plan to raise costs for working families to pay for tax cuts for the ultra-rich. Instead, we are eager to work on bipartisan legislation to provide tax relief and lower costs for American families without giveaways to the wealthy.

If Republicans continue down the path of slashing taxes for the ultra-wealthy and destroying vital benefits for working families, we will stand opposed to those efforts—and so will the American people.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Schumer
