He said ‘I was not involved in handling his nomination’ Newly released emails show that’s not true. Asked about how Pryor's interview went, he replied ‘CALL ME.”’ [LINK TO TWEET AND DOCUMENTS]

@SenatorLeahy: “In 2004, Judge #Kavanaugh distanced himself from the controversial Judge Pryor nomination. He testified—repeatedly—that he ‘was not involved in handling his nomination.’ Thanks to documents released at 3AM this morning, we now know that’s not true. Today I asked Judge #Kavanaugh about that testimony. He again tried to distanced himself from Pryor. Hmm...might it be because Pryor called #ROE “the worst abomination in the history of constitutional law”? Here are the docs. You be the judge.” [LINK TO VIDEO AND DOCUMENTS]

@maziehirono: “Last night, Judge Kavanaugh once again misstated the facts on Rice v Cayetano and the rights of Native Hawaiians. It’s disturbing that any judge, much less a nominee to the Supreme Court, would manipulate the facts to reach his own political conclusions.” [LINK TO TWEET AND VIDEO]

@maziehirono: “These are the docs Rs don’t want you to see—because they show that Judge Kavanaugh wrongly believes that Native Hawaiian programs are Constitutionally questionable.
