The American Rescue Plan in Action: Preserving Essential Community Services

As the COVID-19 pandemic continues, states, localities, Tribal nations, and U.S. territories continue to face workforce reductions that endanger critical community services. And these cuts have real-life consequences for people in our communities.

Democrats have made preserving essential public services and rebuilding local economies a top priority. The American Rescue Plan is doing just that!

- On May 10th, states, localities, Tribal nations, and U.S. territories began applying for their share of the American Rescue Plan's $350 billion Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds.
