The American Rescue Plan in Action:

Tax Cuts for Working Families that will
Cut Child Poverty in Half

The American Rescue Plan delivered major tax cuts for working families with children through a historic expansion of the Child Tax Credit (CTC). Combined with other provisions of the American Rescue Plan, this expanded CTC is projected to cut child poverty in the United States by half.

The IRS estimates that around 39 million households — covering almost 90% of children in the United States — will begin receiving monthly payments without any further action required.

Democrats have made helping children and delivering tax cuts to working families top priorities.

The American Rescue Plan is doing just that!
